ST. PAUL, Minnesota. May 10, 2018 – Education Minnesota has endorsed Dan Feehan’s campaign for the U.S. House of Representatives from the Minnesota 1st Congressional District, which includes the southern third of the state.

“Crushing education debt is one of the biggest reasons teachers leave the profession and Dan Feehan has committed to fighting predatory lenders and lowering the cost of college,” said Denise Specht, president of Education Minnesota. “The educators of Education Minnesota are looking forward to working on federal issues with Dan.”

A committee of local educators from Minnesota’s 1st Congressional District interviewed Feehan, a Democrat, during the endorsement process, which included approval from the political action committees of the American Federation of Teachers and the National Education Association.
