ST. PAUL, Minnesota. Feb. 11, 2020 – Education Minnesota has endorsed Betty McCollum's campaign for reelection to the U.S. House of Representatives.

"Betty McCollum has been a strong advocate for the Protecting the Right to Organize Act and other legislation to protect the freedom of working people to come together in union and bargain for the working conditions and compensation they deserve," said Denise Specht, president of Education Minnesota. "For those reasons and others, Education Minnesota is proud to endorse Betty McCollum's reelection campaign."

McCollum, a Democrat, is running for reelection in Minnesota's 4th Congressional District. The political action committees of the American Federation of Teachers and the National Education Association have also endorsed her.
