ST. PAUL, Minnesota, Feb. 24, 2020 – The political action committee of Education Minnesota has endorsed Stillwater Area High School teacher Josiah Hill in his campaign for Minnesota Senate in District 39.

After a public screening attended by more than 30 area educators, the educators recommended Hill for state Senate. The Education Minnesota PAC board accepted the recommendation and voted to endorse Hill.

“Students need more advocates at the Capitol with first-hand experience in Minnesota’s classrooms,” said Denise Specht, president of Education Minnesota. “Josiah Hill has the experience, good character and good sense that we need in state government.”

Hill is running as a member of the DFL.
