NEA/AFT Attorney Referral Program

Members can seek help from a participating attorney about personal legal concerns such as wills/trusts, criminal, personal injury, small business, elder law and other areas of practice—with free initial consultation(s) and pre-negotiated discounted rates thereafter. Call ESI for more information and for lists of participating attorneys.

ESI

Education Minnesota ESI is self-supporting; revenues provide benefits, services and consumer education for members. ESI is governed by a board of directors and a member-led advisory committee which reviews and recommends sponsorship of financial, insurance and discount products for members, using nearly 90,000 members as leverage to negotiate special pricing and product options.
