

Trusted Partners and Organizations to Support

Local:

Many communities now have informal networks providing mutual aid. Search on your social media channel or ask trusted community allies about networks if there isn't one readily accessible.

Labor:

Working Partnerships, a charitable association affiliated with the Minneapolis Regional Labor Federation, is coordinating mutual aid to impacted union families. Donate here: <https://workingpartnerships.betterworld.org/campaigns/support-impacted-union-families>

Statewide organizations:

Unidos is training members statewide as observers, sending alerts to activate observers, providing connections to legal help and much more. Learn more and donate here: www.Unidos-MN.org

The Immigrant Law Center in Minnesota has supported Education Minnesota in developing joint training and is at the front lines of legal defense for immigrants. Learn more and donate at: www.ilcm.org

COPAL – Communities Organizing Latine Power and Action, is a member-based organization established in 2018 to improve the quality of life of Latine families. They are also helping with ICE activity alerts now that Unidos/Monarca has had to make their website private. <https://copalmn.org/>

MIRAC – MIRAC is an all-volunteer, grassroots, multiracial, and multinational immigrant rights mass-movement organization. MIRAC fights for legalization for all, an end to immigration raids and deportations, an end to all anti-immigrant laws, and full equality in all areas of life. <https://www.miracmn.com/>

AWOOD – The Awood Center is a place for the East African Community to learn, defend our rights at work, and build East African worker power. <https://www.awoodcenter.org/>

MN ACLU – An organization committed to protecting the civil rights of all Minnesotans, especially those of educators, students, and immigrants. <https://www.aclu-mn.org/>
